S. its always nice to be back here. i served four years r iMpSon here and was Chairman of what was then the Benefits Subcommittee and enjoyed it and the staff work here greatly. i apologize for being a little late. we had a markup and, you know, you just cant get out of those. Chairman Boozman, ranking member herseth, its good to be with you today. i appreciate the opportunity to appear before your sub-committee to discuss the bill h. r. 1207, the department of Veterans affairs work-study act of 2005, which will expand the work-study opportunities for veteran-students. mr. Chairman, the work-study program provides veteran-students an opportunity to earn additional funds each semester while gain-ing valuable work experience. Current law authorizes a work-study program for any student receiving a Va education or vocational reha-bilitation benefits; however, the current restrictions for acceptable work-study services are too limiting. under current law, the veteran-student may only perform services in support of veterans programs at VA regional offices, medical cen-ters or national cemeteries or college and university veterans affairs offices or by conducting outreach services under the supervision of a Va employee or a state approving agency. these limiting parameters for acceptable work-study services restrict the number of positions available to eligible veterans and keep veterans from having the op-portunity to earn supplemental financial assistance while gaining valuable work experience. limited work-study...
