This system is complete in itself. The power vested in Boards of health to quarantine In re James Kibby, Order for Relief. families and provide hospitals necessarily implies the right to maintain and support those families during the period of quarantine and while they are in the control of the board of health. This system is complete and independent of the poor laws of the Commonwealth. Under the poor laws of the Commonwealth only those who are paupers within the meaning of that term have a right to relief. In the case of Mr. Kibby and his family he was earning a living and supporting his family at the time he was quarantined by the board of health. As soon as released from the quarantine he was able and did support and maintain himself and family. We are therefore of the opinion that the Overseers of the Poor were not required to receive him and his family as paupers. They could not do so while they were quarantined and in the control and subject to the supervision of the board of health of Warren borough. It is the duty of the Overseers of the poor to take charge of such persons as under the laws of the Commonwealth they are paupers. And under the Acts of Assembly relating to the...
