I am content, said the pilgrim, in his deep, grave voice. And he lifted the drooping figure of his young wife from the beast, while the mother of Ruth hastened to fetch the bowl of hot porridge and a sup of new milk as well. When the little Ruth lay down on her bed that night her eyes turned eagerly toward the narrow window high up in the wall, through which the strange new star had looked for many a night. The star is grown very bright! murmured the child. Its long rays entered the dark chamber and seemed to caress her aching shoulders like the hands of angels. She slept at length and dreamed, and her dreams were still of the star which on that night of nights poured a flood of glorious light on the quiet little town of Bethlehem. In the cloudy...
