CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 228 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. In this highly entertaining and hilariously backhanded collection of true-life essays, low-rent Hollywood dilettante Mike Justice recounts a gleefully turbulent year spent bouncing between Los Angeles and Portland, Oregon (The Berlin of the I-5 Corridor), on a desperate quest for what he craves and fears most: attention, self-respect, success, and laughably dysfunctional love affairs with neurotic men. If you lost your job, got caught stealing Asia Argento's TV, and were subsequently tossed out by your Siamese cat-addicted movie-producer boyfriend all in one week, it might inspire a sincere re-evaluation of your life goals. And if the only job you could get was washing dishes in a Jewish deli because your alcoholic rabbi pulled some strings, you might think about a call to a career college. But Mike Justice doesn't scare so easily. Foxy, ruthless, and dense, Mike plows ahead, bouncing from one absurd comeback scheme (and man) to the next with the grace of a wrecking ball. Whether engaging in carnal fisticuffs with a sex-crazed (and clinically insane) former soap star known only as The Coat Check Rapist, having his perpetually shirtless, twenty-one year-old assistant try to drown him in a Koi pond, or possibly finding true love with a ferocious Brooklynite whose passion for karaoke is surpassed only by his fondness for unprotected sex, Mike leaves no stone unturned and no personal or professional boundary uncrossed. The road to redemption has never been fraught with such hot obstacles. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
