Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Spurious Kansas Memorial Debate in the Senate, April 14, 1856, on the memorial of James H.Lane, 2 ((ling that the Senate receive and grant the prayer of the memorial presented by General Cass, and afterwards withdratwn, embracing the speeches of Senators Douglas, Pugh, Butler, Toucey, Rusk, c. The debate was opened by Mr. Harlan, who presented the memorial of Colonel Lane, and proceeded to pass a high eulogium upon him for his services as a politician and a soldier. After detailing Colonel Lane s services, Mr. Harlan proceeded: But, Mr. President, I desire to remind the democracy of the country, so ably represented on this floor, who had conferred on him so many distinguished honors, that when he came to his own his own knew him not. They seemed to have entirely forgotten his distinguished services in days of yore. It was not remembered with sufficient vividness to be a voucher for his personal honesty. The honorable senator from Louisiana (Mr. Benjamin) said of the paper which he presented to the Senate of the United States, in the name of the members of the Senate and House of Representatives: I believe, upon the face of this petition and upon scrutinizing its statements and the signatures which are attached to it, that it is an impudent forgery, attempted to be palmed off upon the Senate of the United States through the hands of the venerable senator from Michigan. I do not believe this to be the petition of the men from whom it purports to emanate. I want to know how this petition got here under such circumstances as to call for such observations as...
