She wanted to explore and write about the Wild West. Determined to be equal to the male reporters, she ventured out on her own to face Indians, gold Miners, and the Calvary. Men of every type, shape, and from confronted her in one way or another. She got her story and then some. What could she do about the handsome, eligible sheriff? Does she want a relationship, does he? What about his temperament? What about the other single women in town? Along with her journalism duties she has to take her own photographs, learn to cook, clean, avoid challenging characters, and shoot a pistol. How were the town s women folk persuaded to help Margaret learn these duties? Join Margaret in her most recent adventure in Four Moon and Fair Maidens.
