Castle Hillcrest is about a rural Baron and his castle, the heroes that protect it, and the enemies who wish to destroy it. Hillcrest is just one part of the huge world of Claemairem. It starts out slow and accelerates exponentially as evil forces come to bear. A wizard with dreams of money and power starts off this majestic adventure by leading a mercenary band to attack Hillcrest. A demon is then released from its prison in a sword; that brings the gods into play. Lord Barton who is a lost family line of the castles heritage; combats the politics of the kingdom verse what is right and wrong. He and his castle becomes the target of the king and his hidden red dragon advisor. There are characters of power that grow and learn to love. They find what has been missing in their lives and the honor of doing the right thing. The gods take an increasing part in the actions of the world as the story unfolds. Unbeknownst to all; the mother who created this world watches as her test begins its journey to its conclusion. What destiny lies in wait for them all Castle Hillcrest has reawakened from her sleep and risen from Claemairem. Lord Barton has been forced to the forefront of the Rebellion to King Haltors Crown. As the Royal Councilor takes notice of their defiance, he calls on the Kingdoms resources to bring them down quickly as possible. Red Dragons are seen in the skies over The Kingdom of Redwing for the first time in four hundred years. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
