Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This non-fiction book contains hard-earned advice on how to travel Australia and return home safe, healthy and, above all, alive. Each advice is illustrated with stories during which I learned them. They re all from my own travels - conducted back when I was still a naive, young person. The advices are grouped and sorted by source and extent of the hazard. The biggest risk gets explained first: You. Followed by: Other people, then companies and organizations. Finally (and only then) australian cliché hazards: animals, weather, geography, natural disasters. And, since you ll be travelling: transportation - alone, with others, during hikes or group travel. For example, I explain how to properly apply sunscreen (in short: every other hour, nighttime excluded) and tell about how I got a (natural!) tan while it rained. I explain to outsiders why Vegemite is good for you (and a funny way to spot the non-initiated). Don t drive a car at night - I did, and I m listing everything I barely missed (the least of that were animals). You might have been told the Police was there to protect and to serve but they don t always live up to that - I witnessed them arresting those needing help! Don t hitchhike - I tried that unsuccessfully for hours even though I were in busy places - and I m telling you about that so you won t get lost in remote Australia or meet a serial killer. Animals aren t accustomed to meeting humans since the country is so spacious, so they just treat people like terrain and run across them. Road Trains aren t long trucks,...
