By Edith Smith

Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 68 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.2in. The true Identity of Adam and Eve is a must read for both Christian and non Christian alike, it takes you on a journey of your ancestry, it takes you into the heart of the Garden of Eden where you will encounter the forbidden tree with two kinds of fruit, the fruit of blessings and the fruit of curses and what it means to the world today. The story it tells reveals sin at its lowest level, it gives the low down on the down low. It speaks to the heart of the homosexuals, the lesbians, those who have and those that are about to alter their original gender. It speaks to serial sinners, murderers, rapist and so much more, you will understand Genesis as you have never understood it before. This word is packed with power and revelation. The world needs to read the truth of this word brought to light at a time when it is so desperately needed. Edith Smith is a retired practical nurse, she has attended the International seminary school of theology. A member of the First Born Church This item...
