

Personal Preparedness in America: Findings from the 2009 Citizen Corps National Survey

By Federal Emergency Management Agency U.S.

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 88 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. Disaster preparedness became a renewed priority for our Nation as a direct response to the devastation of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Following the tragedies of that day, government at all levels has embedded stronger collaboration with nongovernmental civic and private sector organizations and the general public in policies and practices. The Citizen Corps grassroots model of community preparedness has spread across the country, and Americans have been asked to become fully aware, trained, and practiced on how to respond to potential threats and hazards. To evaluate the Nations progress on personal preparedness, the Federal Emergency Management Agencies (FEMAs) Community Preparedness Division conducts Citizen Corps National Surveys to measure the publics knowledge, attitudes, and behaviors relative to preparing for a range of hazards. This report provides a summary of the findings from the 2009 Citizen Corps National Survey. The research objectives and survey questions for the Citizen Corps National Survey were developed based on previous research, preparedness modeling, and policy and guidance from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). In 2003, Citizen Corps conducted a national survey to provide...
